Warmth of the Heart

8 0 1

Chapter 1 by Elisa

I sat there, at the bottom of the willow tree, waiting. For a sign maybe? Something to come save me. Nothing ever came. I was alone in a town that had everything. Yet nobody was to be seen. Why was nobody here? Most importantly how did I come to this land. I have no memories. All i know is that my name is Akari. I'm getting no answers waiting here, might as well take more looks around.

I walked along the shore of the beach. It was almost evening. The sun was to set soon. The sand between my toes grew cold. Waves crashed against each other. My heart yearned for company. I feel so confused, so lost, so empty... I decided to get off the beach. Its a place for fun and laughter and games and company, but the air was only filled with silence.

Moving along the Market i noticed how the aroma of food faintly lingered in the air. It wasn't so fresh. But someone was definitely around here today. I grabbed some fruits and continued to walk. Oh how great and juicy these pineapples tasted. My stomach growled after that 1st bite. Hmm i might as well eat since there's free food all around. I entered a sushi place since i didn't feel like cooking. Turning on the Tv shouldn't be a problem since i'm alone.
